Master's Summary

The Master of Science in Management at Bocconi University is a highly selective 2-year program at one of Europe's best business schools, ranked 3rd in Europe and 7th worldwide by QS and 9th worldwide by the Financial Times. Bocconi is the only business school in Italy to hold the "Triple Crown" accreditation from AACSB, EQUIS, and AMBA.

The first year is dedicated to skill-building in core areas such as quantitative methods, performance measurement, marketing, strategy, business law, and organization, as well as courses designed to improve your "soft skills". During the second semester of your first year you will also work on projects with partner companies. The second year is entirely dedicated to the internship and the focused educational experience by selecting four courses within one of the majors proposed:

- Fashion, Luxury and Made in Italy
- Organizational Change and Consulting
- Sustainability
- Entrepreneurship, SMEs and Growth Strategy
- Finance
- Sport Management
- Global Experience (reserved for Double Degree, Free Mover and Exchange Program students only)

Career Opportunities

At Bocconi, 95.7% of MSc graduates are employed one year after graduation. The most typical exit opportunities include SMEs, Venture Capital, Management Consulting, Investment Banking, and fashion and luxury companies. The second-year internship is required to graduate.

Life in Milan

You will be able to travel and experience one of the most iconic countries in Europe, known for its history & culture, artistic scene, settings, as well as cuisine. You will be less than two hours away from Europe's major cities, including London, Madrid, Barcelona, Paris, and Berlin.

Start date - Sep 2021

Master's Summary

The Master in Marketing Management, Omnichannel and Consumer Analytics is a 12-month program fully delivered in English, designed for students with less than 3 years of full-time work experience. It provides a solid background for facing the challenges of contemporary marketing practice: digital marketing, mobile marketing, non-conventional marketing, omnichannel communication, quantitative and (big) data-driven marketing. The Master incorporates brand management and creativity. This Master in marketing matches a solid theoretical background with continuous applications to real business situations.

Career Opportunities

At Politecnico, 79% of MSc graduates are employed within 3 months after graduation and the average salary 6 months after graduation is €45,000. Graduates of previous editions are now working in leading companies such as: BOSELLI, Cartier SA, GENERALI INSURANCE, Nielsen, IBM, UM, Piaggio, BMW, Peuterey, PIRELLI TYRE, Whirlpool EMEA, Sephora, Safilo and Mondelēz
